DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVEN-TION.

There will be a convention of the Democratic party of Forsyth county. in Winston, on the 5th day of July, 1886, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Judicial convention to be held in Yadkinville, N. C., on the 15th day of July, 1886, and also to the Congressional convention to be held in Greensboro, on a day not yet

A full attendance from all the townships is desired. By order of the Executive Committee.

M. W. NORFLEET, Chairman

THE PRACTICAL COMMON SENSE L'EMOCRATIC VOTERS KNOW THATTHE INTERNAR REVENUECAN NOT BE REPEALED WHILE A RE-PUBLICAN MAJORITY SITS IN THE SENATE TO DEFEAT SO DEMO-CRATIC A MEASURE. THE DEMO-CRATIC PARTY IS PLEDGED TO THE REPEAL OF THE REVENUE, AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY WILL FULFILL ATS PROMISES TO THE PEOPLE JUST AS SOON AS THE WAY IS OPENED TO THE REALIZATION OF SO LONG CHERISHED A DESIRE.

It may not be amiss to remark that a State election was held in Oregon on the 7th, inst., and that the Democratic candidate for Governor, Mr. PENNOYER, was triumphantly elected. Four years ago a Republican Governor was elected in that State by 1,412 majority.

No man of this generation was ever more unjustly misconceived by those who only knew him by reputation, than the late Tammany Chief. It will therefore surprise the average reader to learn that he was a man of mild and gentle manners, of irreproachable personal character, and of commanding genius and ability.

THE SENTINEL'S Boston representative, REMLY S. SIDELINGER, sends us a copy of The Boston Knight, a labor paper which he is editing with marked ability. He is good enough to say a kind word for THE SENTINEL, commending our paper to the laboring people in New England and elsewhere. We wish the Knight much success.

MR. T. B. WAMOCK, writing from Washington City to the Pittsboro Record, savs :

It is now understood that Jue're Bennett will not be a candidate for re-nomination and that the chances are in favor of Gov. Steaman as his successor. He has previously been keptout of Congress by the two-thirds rule, but in the district as now constituted that rule does not prevail. His many friends in Chatham will be glast to know that his prospects are so good.

Mr. W. says further that Maj. STEDMAN'S "principal opponent will be Capt. SID ALEXANDER, of Mecklenburg." The Observer stated authoratively a few days ago that this gentleman positively was not in the race, so this would indicate that Mai. STUDMAN will be the successful candidate for the nomination.

A FORECAST. In the last congressional election in the Fifth District, the Democratic nominee polled in Forsyth county Greek chair. 2,055 votes, while the Republican candidate received 1.872, a majority of the compositor made us say the majority was 1183, having made what, in printer's parlance, is termed a "doublet," by repeating the figure 1.

This majority of 183, was an encouraging triumph for Democracy, in Forsyth county, and it is only the prethe Republican, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

The Democratic party is stronger to-day in Winston and Forsyth than enough with the pulse of the people, College." What was he diving at? to know whereof we speak. The present Democratic county administration has been a satisfactory one to all, regardless of party affiliation. This fact, of itself, will help build up and increase the Democratic majority at George V. Strong, who is now favorably spoken the next election. But there is another point to consider, which will tend more than all else to increase the party's strength in November, and this fact may not have occurred to the editor of the Republican. The influx of new comers into Winston since large, and by a cursory canvass of these, now permanent residents we find a large majority of them are Democrats. If there is any consolation in this fact, to the Republican, it is welcome to it. A word concerning party defection,

The Republican is an alarmist. It would have Democrats believe will point to petty factional dissentions as an evidence of this erroneous belief; it will harp on the non-repeal of the Internal Revenue with more agonizing contortions than any Democratic editor ever manifested, and it will put this and that together, fold its little hands, in true mourner style, mantle its countenance with a look of infinite sadness (and dyspepsia), and sit down to write a little editorial, treating its Democratic readers to remarkable information concerning their party's disruption.

In all candor, Mr. Goslen, let us assure you that the Democratic party of this section, is still in tact. THE SEN-TINEL, with all its ramifications, has tain the tendency of the times among Democrats, as our republican contemporary. It fancies it can feel the popular pulse and detect the political under current with tolerable accuracy.

There is no denying the fact that the Internal Revenue continues to be a thorn in the people's flesh. The Democratic party is pledged to its repeal, and the Democratic party will repeal it. It is a serious reflection on the intelligence, the practical commonsense of the Democratic voter to as sert that he will vote the Republican ticket in November, only because the Ravenue is still in force. That's logic with a vengeance. We doubt if there is a single voter of either party who does not know that our North Carolina Congressmen have made vigorous efforts to effect Revenue reform ; they have done all that they could do, and were their bills passed in the House a Republican majority in the Senate would have it in power to defeat them. Mr. Goslen knows this, but it is not exactly to his interest to dwell on the point.

THE SENTINEL gives much of its space this week to accounts of the commencements at Trinity and Wake Forest Colleges, and has in consequence been forced to cut down its accustomed quota of State news. As these delightful occasions come about only once in a year we trust our readers will over look the scarcity of the matter mentioned.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We rejoice to see a new county board elected How great a factor it, as an outspoken newspaper has been in securing the new board, cannot be estimated, but it has been outspeken in its demand, and has been sustained. The subect was a disagreeable one to enter upon, but that the party is falling to pieces; it we took up the cause, believing that the change was a necessity. We have no malice toward the old board, but we wanted new men in .-Fayetteville News.

A Raleigh paper has sounded the note warning to all Democrate to watch their primary meetings. They are to be vigilantly watched, for in these primaries is the place the artful demagogue gets in his most successful work. There is the beginning of all, or the greater part of all, the corruption too prevalent most of the time. These meetings should be attended by every true, pure Democrat who values the success of his party at anything. He should give every movement inaugurated his personal attention; he should examine the man originating new schemes, plans, etc., very carefully, and discover what motive prompts him before allying and pledging himself to support these new schemes, etc., and then it will what the result of any new departure will be to the Democratic party. Let every man set himself to watching and not depend on some oue else. - Greenville Reflector

> [For the SENTINEL] THE MAGIC PENCIL.

NY WES, LOTTE E. ANTE. One day when seated at my desk to write,
There suddenly came over me a fog
Of anxious cares that put my thoughts to flight,
And all my fondest fancies seemed to clog!
I dipped my pen in ink, and tried in vain
My fair asthetic visions to recall;
I changed my seat, but still my addled brain
Would cling to dismal thoughts, that like a pall haddewed all my efforts, naught would From heart and mind and brain, those vision drear!

I threw aside my pen in dull despair,
And seized a pencil from my dagere.
Then I began to write again, and strange,
It was to note the prompt and wonder change!. Thoughts once so scattered came in bright And in their wonted place arrayed themselves.

While all those dismal visions fled away.

Like phantoms in the light, or timorous elves.

And now I sit and write, and write, and write.

While o'er the page my magic pencil flies,
Thoughts come so thick and fast that like the light,
They dazzle and o'erpower my weery eyes. They dazzle and o'erpower my weery eyes.

Still on my pencil goes, nor can I tell.

The power that seems to move it at its will;

R was a gift from one who knows fulwell

The art of moving hearts and souls, but still

I cannot understand what wondrous art

Could to a pencil give such magic skill—

could it but speak, perhaps it would impart

The secret of its power my page to fill!

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

The efforts that are made from time to time to give our readers new attractions cost money and we look to them for the "wherewithal', to defray these extra expenses. Notwithstanding this has been a very dull year. THE SENTINEL is to be congratulated upon the promptness with which its patrons have come torward and paid their subscriptions. There are still a few who have neglected this important duty either from force of circumstances in some cases, and others from force of habit. These readers are just as warm friends of THE SENTI-NEL as the more systematic ones, and can at almost any time cancel their arrears. It is our desire that all our subscribers stand on the same footing, and to bring about this result, we make the following offer:

We will peesent one of our hand some lithograph crayons of Governor Scales to every subscriber who be-tween now and the 1st of July pays up to January 1st, 1887. We want to begin the new year of 1887 with clean books and we make this early start to do it. After each account is settled up to January 1st, it will be no difficult matter for all of our subscribers to make their annual payment henceforward as they become due. By this adherance to business method, we will be relieved of the unpleasant task of reminding our readers of their arrears, and it will allow us to expend more time and money and energy in improving THE SENTINEL, and making it even a more popular newspaper than its present increase in circulation would justify us in believing it to be.

This promises to be a lively politi cal year and every man in Forsyth and the Fifth District, who wants to keep posted ought to take the SENT-INEL. We will send this paper until atter the election in November, next, and include a copy of our fine portrait of Gov. Scales for ONLY SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS, CASH.
